SMASHUP—Two local youths were hospitalized Saturday morning after their car smashed sideways into a tree in the 3200 block on Kempf street in Lemon Grove. The car left skid marks all the way from Broadway to Golden Avenue, across Golden and 150 feet on down Kempf before skidding across the street into the tree. Above, left, an ambulance attendant helps Melvin Ostberg Jr., 22 of 827 Parkbrook, Spring Valley, onto stretcher. At right, deputy sheriff brings Robert Fetters, 20, of 4585 Maple, La Mesa, back to scene of crash. Fetters, the driver, ran from the scene up a private lane, where he was found leaning against a house. Both youths were treated at Grossmont Hospital for head injuries. Fetters was released Monday and Ostberg was released Tuesday. — Staff Photo

County to Widen Traffic Bottleneck

Broadway to be Paved From Olive to Main

The block-long bottleneck on Broadway, between Olive and Main in Lemon Grove, will be widened to three lanes, it was revealed this week by Paul Fowler, traffic engineer for the County Road Department.

He also announced that the Broadway widening job between the freeway and Olive, should be completed by August 15, a month and a half ahead of schedule.

Fowler said delivery of king-size concrete drain pipe, some of it measuring 60 inches in height, was obtained far earlier than expected by the Daley Bros., contractors on the job.

"The pipe wasn't expected to arrive here until June 15. Instead it has been delivered and all but two or three pieces is in the ground already," Fowler said. The pipe will control storm water in two low sections on Broadway.

"We are also fortunate that the contractor has a city job on the Fairmount Avenue Freeway. He was able to shunt a lot of equipment to the Lemon Grove job during a lull in the Fairmount work," Fowler said.

"If the contractor keeps up his present pace on the Broadway job, paving should start within three weeks and the job would be completed by August 15," he said. The contractor's deadline is September 30.

Cost of the 95/100th-of-a-mile improvement is $620,000 which includes $350,000 for rights-of-way. It was started during the last week in April.

By comparison, the 9/10ths of a mile improvement on Imperial Avenue last year cost $600,000 of which $260,000 was for rights-of-way. The Imperial Avenue improvement required four months and was finished on schedule. Broadway probably will be finished one and a

Valley Airport Sold to Developer Of Trailer Park

The east 25 acres of La Mesa Airport in south Spring Valley has been sold for a 261-unit trailer park, according to Joe Eaton, owner of the airport. He is retaining 31 acres, but said he is uncertain what he will do with the balance of the land.

The 25 acres was purchased by Lee Sparks, local realtor and builder of eight other trailer (mobile homes) parks, one on Bancroft Dr. Spring Valley. The 25 acres of the La Mesa Airport (at Sweetwater Springs Blvd. and Jamacha Blvd.) were sold, according to the federal stamp, for $130,000, said Joe Eaton.

Sparks said the new park, which at present is unnamed will stress family living. It will have two swimming pools, a recreation building, playgrounds, family park, master television antenna, underground telephone wiring and the trailer spaces all fenced. He said the park should be completed by Septembed.

Sparks is the developer and operator of the new park, and president of the Mobile Construction Corp., which specializes in trailer park development.

Regarding the La Mesa Airport, he quipped that "the mobile home is replacing the airplane." The old airstrip has been removed.

Sparks company has 25 acres in Escondido ready for another 260 spaces.

The La Mesa Airport, which was established in the 1940s, was at first known as the Sweetwater Air Ranch. Joe Eaton and son Joe Eaton Jr. purchased the property in February of 1951 and later when the La Presa Airport was sold, those planes were brought to the La Mesa Airport.

'Power of the Press' Impresses Local Writer

Mrs. George G. Walker of 1632 Watwood Dr., Lemon Grove, is convinced of the power of the press.

And the chamber of commerce.

A couple of weeks ago, Mrs. Walker, a free lance writer and comparative newcomer to the area, wrote a letter to the editor of this newspaper. She told of her distress at seeing "Lemon Grove" spelled LEMEON GROVE on a Little League sign at Mt. Miguel high school.

She wrote that the Coca Cola company had erected the sign and that it had been there for two years with the community's name misspelled.

The newspaper printed her letter.

Helen Moulton, manager of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce read the letter. She phoned the Coca Cola company. They sent a sign painter out right away. He repainted the sign.

Now everybody's happy and Mrs. Walker is impressed by the power of "one little letter to the editor."

Postmaster Asks Kids to Lay Off Local Mail Boxes

Mrs. Mildred Moran, Spring Valley postmaster, has reported to school officials that postal inspectors have complained that youngsters on the way home from school have been tampering with the mail boxes and removing mail.

She said that she and mail box owners would appreciate a reminder to teachers and pupils that such pranks not only are frowned upon—but also are federal offenses.

The school district issued a notice to its staff.

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

The American Cancer Society is attempting to show our teenagers the hazards to health of cigarette smoking, and in so doing are giving them a small lesson in morality.

Although the Society's policy is to teach and not to preach, it is interesting to note that any attempt to insinuate a philosophy among the youth of our country must be attended by considerable preaching.

ACS says that youngsters in our local high schools, and those up and down the coast are honest-to-John smokers. At senior class level one boy out of three is a regular smoker. Of the girls, one of four is habitual.

Another revealing fact is that the habit picks up momentum as the high school student is promoted. Among boys the percentage of regular smokers for four successive high school years was 14.5 per cent, 25.2 per cent, 31.1 per cent, and 35.4 per cent. For girls it was 4.6 per cent, 10.6 per cent, 16.2 per cent, and 26.2 per cent.

ACS is attacking the problem by supplying Lung Cancer Kits to high schools. These include a color-sound filmstrip. Cooperation is being asked of those most concerned with health and welfare of youth—educators, school boards, parent-teacher groups, physicians, and agencies having to do with welfare and health of youngsters. By such an attack, ACS optimistically hopes to cut youth habitual smoking by 20 per cent. Yet, ACS is ready to admit that the job is near impossible where older siblings or parents smoke; family acceptance being a major factor in forming the habit.

To look back for a moment, it is not hard to remember when almost no women smoked; when men discreetly asked permission to smoke at social gatherings, and a teen-age twerp would have been knocked a-winding had he shown up at a family gathering with a cigarette in his mouth.

Two places where morality is first taught is the home and the church. By the time youngsters get to high school morality patterns are pretty well established. It is testimony to youngsters' good, common sense that a reduction of 20 per cent in smoking is the result of the warning at so late an age.

Now, if ACS can find a way to tell the lung cancer-smoking story to youngsters at the earlier, more impressionable age, far greater inroads can be made.

Of course there will be those who argue that health and morality are not the same. Let those who so charge remember that anything injurious to the health of the upcoming generation of adults and leaders is detrimental to the morals of all humanity.

This pillar is indebted to one of our local citizens, E. I. Phares, for calling our attention to a piece that ran in Boys Ranch Roundup.

The latter is circulated in the interest of boy's organizations with emphasis on the charity institutes.

The material has been well-circulated, but we offer it here because it appears so full of basic logic. It is developed in an aura of old-fathioned thinking that some readers, we are sure, will consider brutally frank.

It comes from the philosophy of Judge Philip B. Gilliam, nationally known juvenile Judge of Denver, Colorado, who has handled thousands of juvenile cases. He titles it "Open Letter to a Teen-ager."

"Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teen-ager: What can we do? . . . Where can we go? The answer is GO HOME!

"Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves, mow the lawn, shovel the walk. Wash the car, learn to

A white American, born on October 25, 1928, at Seattle, Wash., Corbett is 6 feet 1 inch to 6 feet 2 inches tall and

Ranch Company Wins Permit For Sign

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A real estate sign at the intersection of Sweetwater Springs boulevard and Campo road, Spring Valley, was authorized Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The applicant was Sweetwater Springs Ranch Co., asking to be allowed to have the sign 50 feet from the center line of Sweetwater Springs boulevard and 60 feet from the center line of Campo road.

The planning staff recommended denial of the request, but Lonnie L. Hubbard, representing the applicant, said putting the sign further back would create a traffic hazard. He said it would have to be higher on the hill and would block vision on the roads.

Hubbard also said the sign replaces one that was there for a number of years. The commision granted permission for the sign for only one year.

ANYONE MENTION MY NAME?

The Mail Box

Dear Editor:

The road improvements on Broadway appear to be progressing very rapidly. It shouldn't be very long before we have a beautiful improved street. No doubt others are in a dilemma as to what to do about sidewalks.

Here is what I have found out regarding sidewalks:

1. The contract calls for grading for 4½ ft. of sidewalk, but no surfacing (Driveways DO NOT count as part of the walk, for they are already paved.)

2. You must contact the contractor, for he will not be calling you, if you want sidewalks.

3. The sidewalks can be installed, while they are now on the job, at a lesser cost. This cost is 58 cents per square foot which includes the grading, permits, etc. — a finished job. I talked to Dave Bird and he estimated that it would cost about 10 cents per ft. more if sidewalks were installed under the 1911 or some other similar act, and would be 6 months to a year before any action could be taken.

We are so near a beautiful street, why not complete it now with SIDEWALKS so people will have a place to walk?

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce fully supports this action and is working on it to try and see it through. If anyone desires more information in regards to this matter, contact the Chamber HO 9-9621.

If your chrysanthemum plants remain green on top while the stems begin to dry out below, you can be pretty sure the trouble is due to termites or borers in the roots of the plants.

Zinnias are also frequently attacked by underground borers. Sometimes this condition will be caused by nematodes but it more frequently is termites or borers.

My suggestion is that you treat the soil where the plants are growing immediately with a borer solution that is on the market for control of borers in trees and shrubs. It contains ethylene dichloride which is one of the heavier ethers and, if you are particular to water the chrysanthemums before using the product in the soil, it will do no injury to the plants and will destroy either borers or termites in the roots. It will even do a great deal to combat nematode infestation so that the plants can grow and produce blooms.

Proper irrigation is essential to chrysanthemums so that they have even moisture at all times.

Those of us who have been looking for a clean-up of labor unions were distressed to learn last week that even the U.S. Court of Appeals has conspired to put off, maybe forever, the day when crooked labor leaders can be ousted.

The resurgence of faith and trust in our policing procedures that came when U.S. District Court Judge F. Dickinson Letts appointed a three-man monitor's board went down the drain when the appellate court reversed an important part of the monitoring practices.

Judge Letts had directed the chairman of the monitoring board, Martin F. O'Donoghue, to take necessary steps to oust James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, if Hoffa and company failed to clean up the union organization. He gave O'Donoghue additional authority by which the cleanup might be enforced.

O'Donoghue had complained that the other two members of the board had been working against him and he removed one man, Lawrence T. Smith, from the monitoring board.

O'Donoghue carried complaints against Hoffa to court from time to time without consulting the rest of the board. The action was apparently deemed necessary because cooperation was not forthcoming from the board.

The court also gave O'Donoghue authority to acquire the services of an outside law firm, and to hire additional staff members to help keep the union's officials in line.

The appellate court's action stripped O'Donoghue of his added authority; it rescinded the order removing Monitor Smith; it denied him use of the added legal and staff assistance, and all but wrecked a chance to bring Hoffa to trial.

The charge against O'Donoghue: That proper procedure was not used in ousting Smith, and that the monitors' power did not include the extra authority it used by direction of Judge Letts.

The charge against Hoffa: that of misusing $600,000 in Teamsters money entrusted to him. He is charged with using it for personal business ventures.

The next step. a hearing on O'Donaghue's action against the union.

The losers: rank-and-file union members and the American public.

half months ahead of schedule.

Fowler said the single block between Olive and Main streets, now two lanes, would be widened to three traffic lanes. Power poles and pepper trees on the south side of the area would be moved to accommodate the improvement. Westbound traffic will remain one lane, he said.

"There are no funds in the 1960-61 budget for county participation for improving the Olive street section," Fowler said. He pointed out that the 1911 Road Improvement District request was "still alive." Property owners along Broadway between Olive and Kempf had petitioned the supervisors of the county to permit a distinctive type improvement in their area. The improvement would be paid for by property owners in order to avert center-islands similar to those being installed on the stretch of Broadway now under construction.

Fowler said it wasn't likely that money will be budgeted for the east Broadway improvement until it becomes a certainty that the improvement will not be made by private interests.

Disaster Office To Reorganize State Plan

The Calif. Disaster Office expects to reorganize the current regional plan for the State effective July 1, according to a recent report from the Civil Defense office at Gillespie Field. Six regions will be established in the state. At present there are three.

San Diego County will be in Region 6, with Imperial, San Bernardino and Riverside counties. Headquarters will be at Escondido.

The Calif. Disaster Office hopes eventually to establish permanent protected control centers and next year will request a blast-proof shelter for Sacramento and fall-outproof centers in other regions.

INDIANS NEED HELP — These two Lemon Grove youngsters, both part Blackfoot Indian, are collecting clothing for students at Pala Mission in northern San Diego county. The two, Tom and Sharon Shea, presented a program at Monterey Heights school recently, attracting attention to the need of the Indian students at Pala Mission for clothing. Many of the Indian youngsters, they said, will be able to graduate in suitable clothing this month only if that clothing is donated to them. Mrs. Shea can accept clothing either at her home, 1621 Cameron Drive in Lemon Grove, or at the office of the AAA Answering Service, 5606 El Canon Blvd. The clothing, she said, should be in her hands by Monday. — Staff Photo

Once Over Lightly

by Don Wilson

One of America's greatest traditions is still intact, despite the rush of modern living.

Right now, I'm looking out the window of the office and I can see a wooden fence down the street a little way. Over the top of the fence I can see the top of a little boy's head, and his hand is sticking up, waving.

And through an open window I can hear the sound of a train on the railroad tracks half a block away in the other direction.

I don't know whether or not the engineer is waving back at the little boy, but I'll bet that he is.

I remember when I was a little boy, perhaps not as small as the tyke whose head was showing over the fence a moment ago, but not as large as I am now. Then, we used to run up to the top of the hill to wave at the engineer as the train rumbled along in the valley below.

And the engineer always waved back.

It gave me a thrill, seeing someone as important as a locomotive engineer waving to me, and I never forgot it.

When Katy was about three years old, we lived on the second floor of an apartment building and Katy's bedroom had a big picture window which looked out almost onto a railroad track.

She used to stand up on a chair and wave at the engineer as the train went by. And the engineer used to wave back at her.

And—the man at the back of the train, in the caboose, used to wave at her too.

The engineer would toot the horn twice when he saw Katy. If it was night, we would turn the light on in Katy's room and the trainmen could see her in the window. Then, the man in the caboose would blink the tail lights of the train.

We all became great friends with those trainmen, and once in a while Katy would fail to get to the window in time to see the train go by, and the engineer always would toot the whistle anyway.

When Christmas time came around that year, we painted a great big Christmas card in water colors on Katy's window. It was a picture of a train and it said "Merry Christmas, Mister Train Man." We had a little trouble painting the words backwards from inside. (We couldn't get up to the high window from outside).

The next day after we painted the Christmas card, the trainmen waved and tooted their wistle extra hard, and a litle girl was so happy that she had tears in her eyes.

It's a great tradition and I'm glad it's being carried on.

Dorm Living Required, Love Announces

Residence hall living will be mandatory for next fall's incoming freshmen who are below age 21, unmarried, and who do not live with parent or guardian, San Diego State College President Malcolm A. Love has announced.

When the new ruling takes effect there will be two residence halls for women, and two for men. A third hall for men will be opened later. Each hall can house 200 students.

The purpose of the new ruling, Love said, is to insure that freshmen who live away from home will have state-approved accommodations during their initial transition from high school to collegiate environment.

Local Professors To Be Promoted In Fall Term

Dr. Jack Mills, 1470 El Prado Ave., Lemon Grove, and Dr. Charles Lienert, 8935 Spring Pl., Spring Valley, will be among the 38 San Diego State College faculty members who will receive promotions effective September 1, college president Malcolm A. Love has announced.

Mills will assume the rank of associate professor of speech arts. He received his doctoral degree from the University of Illinois and joined the San Diego State College faculty in 1957. Forensics is his field of specialization.

Lienert will assume the rank of associate professor of education. He received his doctoral degree from Colorado State College of Education and joined the San Diego State College faculty in 1954.

The college's full-time instructional faculty this year totals 396. The college also employs 130 part-time instructional faculty members, 20 full-time administrators, five faculty members in air science, 27 librarians, three full-time physicians, and 11 part time physicians.

FBI Agents Seek Escaped Murderer

weighs 160 to 170 pounds. He has light brown hair, hazel eyes, a fair complexion, a medium build, and has worked as a clerk-typist, laborer, warehouseman, laboratory technician, and alkyd-resin cooker for a paint manufacturer. His two upper front teeth slant inward and he wears glasses, reportedly being extremely nearsighted and capable of seeing only close objects without them. He has a mole under his chin and a C-shaped scar on his right thumb.

Corbett, once a premedical student, is interested in scientific matters, avidly reads technical and travel books, and is intensely interested in firearms and target practice. He reportedly has a superior general intelligence and generally lives quietly and neatly but becomes erratic when drinking alcoholic beverages.

Convicted of second-degree murder, he is considered armed and dangerous.

Anyone having information concerning him should immediately notify the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which can be found on the first page of local telephone directories.

IK Cars Starts New Year in Business

IK Cars, 8012 Broadway, started its second year in business in Lemon Grove this week. The firm specializes in low overhead operation of used car sales.

Ira (Ike) Kaner, owner of the firm, commented:

"June 5 marked one year in business in Lemon Grove. I would like to extend my thanks to the many friends and patrons developed in this area in the past year.

"The decision to settle in San Diego was not made in haste, but with many years of planning. Having been a new car dealer for the past eight years in the city of Van Nuys, my thought was to become a part of a community in which my children and grand kids could enjoy a fine climate and progress in many ways. San Diego with its fine educational system and religious institutions seemed an ideal place.

"Twenty-four years as an automobile dealer have pointed the way for establishing a policy for the present operation of IK CARS, to operate with a very small overhead in order to pass the savings on to the purchaser, to remain in the used automobile business enabling careful selection of vehicles, to staff IK CARS with courteous men dedicated to stating facts, to make a constant endeavor to improve every phase of the operation, to treat people as we would like to be treated and to become an active participant in community affairs.

"Sales of new machinery and especially used machinery, whether it be milling machines, lathes, or automobiles, requires many skills. In our business a mechanical know-how of a variety of manufacturers is required, not to mention the knowledge of cash values and financing know-how. Diplomacy and adjustment ability too, is important. We may not please every purchaser—if not, it is not because a diligent, honest effort was not made by us to adjust each problem to the full satisfaction of the purchaser."

☆ Representative Thomas E. Morgan (D.-Pa.): "I am absolutely convinced that if we eliminate or drastically curtail the mutual security program, the loss of the cold war will be inevitable."

"The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." I Cor. 1:18. It is not our community standing or self estimate that determines whether or not we are a child of God; it is our attitude toward the cross of Christ. What is your attitude?

"Sleeping in Church" will be Rev. Roland Taylor's text at the 8 and 11 a.m. Sunday services. In the evening he will speak on "Excuses."

A three months Sunday School contest, with the theme "Airplane Ride" got under way last Sunday. The contest is to bring more children to Sunday School. Prizes will be given for those children who bring in more students each week. There will be a monthly prize for the individual bringing in the largest number for the month. The grand prize to the individual bringing in the largest number over the three months period will be an airplane ride.

Seven "airplanes" (models) are to be flown during the contest, between the parsonage and the church. Each plane will represent one of the Sunday School departments. The department which is ahead each week will be awarded the banner.

The Vacation Bible School starts June 20, says Mrs. Thelma Lewis, VBS superintendent. She says the school will need cookies and ingredients for punch. She says a parade is being planned for June 18 as the kick-off for the VBS. All children with horses, bikes, musical instruments, etc., caring to enter the parade, may get in touch with Larry Lipska, HO 9-6072.

The Women's Missionary Society held their regular meeting last Thursday, making bandages for hospitals in India and Ethiopia. As June is "Library Month" for the CDO Baptist Church, the WMS had a reading program. It included book reviews, reading of missionary letters and challenges. Of special interest was a collection of books, on display by Katie Woods of the Bible Book Store of La Mesa.

Individuals, Sunday School classes and other groups are being encouraged to contribute toward the purchase of new books for the church library.

Plans for the CDO Baptist Church annual Vacation Bible School are completed. The opening day is June 20 at 9 a.m. and will continue through June 24 with a demonstration program. Rev. Ernest Anderson reports that many interesting features are planned for this school which is open to children 3 through sixth grade; tribes, headbands, feathers, "filling of a real canoe of gifts for the Chippawa and Navajo Indians," chiefs, squaws, medicine men, teepees, missionary stories, handcraft and singing. All fits the theme of this year's school "Pow Wow."

Churchman To Leave For Africa Sunday

Wesley Buttermore, local plumber and member of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church, leaves Sunday night from Los Angeles by air for the Belgian Congo. Buttermore joins four other Methodists, three laymen and one minister, from the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, to make the trip.

The men expect to spend two months in the village of Kapanga, completing a field hospital and building a residence for staff members. The project is part of a continuing, worldwide program designed to enlist laymen in short-term building projects to aid the missions of the church. This project is sponsored by the Service Projects Commitee of the Methodist Church.

The Lemon Grove Methodist Church undertook the raising of the $1,500 needed for Buttermore's air fare to and from Africa. Through the support of individuals and groups, and the community-at-large, a total of $1,671.00 has been received to date. The additional funds also will go into the work. The church wishes to thank all who contributed time and money to this worthy project.

When Buttermore returns in late August, he will be available to groups in the community, to speak and show pictures so far as his time will allow.

Beauty Shop Owners Remodeling Shop, Adding Equipment

George and Vi McKillip, new owners of Velenor Hair Stylists shop at 9101 Campo Road, are extensively remodeling the shop.

Also owners of Vi McKillip's beauty shop in El Cajon, the new Spring Valley shop owners have named Doris Reschke as manager here.

In the remodeling, they are installing new booths and are putting in "air conditioned" hair dryers which are said to be much cooler and more comfortable than the "old" type of dryer. They also are redecorating the entire shop.

McKillip, who is an insurance agent and takes no active part in management of the beauty shops, said that there will be three operators in the Spring Valley shop, thus eliminating waiting and giving better service. He said that all types of permanents will be offered—ranging in price from $10 to $150.

NEW BEGINNINGS

Many young folks have stood before congregations promising to follow Christ, by the Grace of God. Many young folks have also received, or will receive, diplomas from institutions of learning. Confirmation and graduation are not the end of the pursuit of knowledge, but the beginning of a deeper search.

Lemon Grove Lutheran Church Message

Christian Science

The nature of God to preserve and care for man both by example and by promise is brought out in the lesson-sermon "God the Preserver of hismon "God the Preserver of Man" in all Christian Science churches Sunday examples of historical significance and inspiring experiences of Abraham, Joseph, Moses, and Christ Jesus will be related in the scriptural selections. In Genesis (22:2, 2, 11, 12, 18) God, tempting Abraham said, "Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, . . . and offer him for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains . . . and Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood . . . And the angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham . . . Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, . . . And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice."

Speaking of Abraham, Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "This patriarch illustrated the purpose of Love to create trust in good, and showed the life-preserving power of spiritual understanding."

Spring Valley Firemen's Ball

Plans for the 8th annual Spring Valley Firemen's Ball, are being completed, according to word this week. The ball is scheduled for June 18, in the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce hall, 9050 Memory Lane. Mrs. Donna Sass, publicity chairman, says a large transistor radio will be given as the door prize. Other prizes will be given away. Dancing will be from 9 a.m. to 1 a.m. to music by a local band calling themselves the "Sentimentals."

The annual Firemen's Ball in Spring Valley is the one means of raising funds for the Spring Valley Firemen's Relief Association. Firemen are now having a door-to-door campaign for the sale of the tickets. Donation per ticket is $1. The proceeds from the ball this year will help to buy a movie projector for the department's showing of training films.

"Don't forget the date . . . June 18, for the Spring Valley 8th annual Firemen's Ball," says Mrs. Sass.

NEUTRALS DON'T CLASH

The soft beige and golden tones of west coast hemlock and Douglas fir makes an ideal background for any color scheme without clashing, which is one reason for the popularity of these woods for wall paneling.

"Satisfaction Is The Most Important Thing We Sell"

New Professional Center Scheduled

A large professional center will be erected in the business district of Lemon Grove, according to plans announced this week.

The site, located on the southwest corner of Pacific and Olive, will encompass approximately 97,000 square feet. Richard George Wheeler, A.I.A., has designed the center which will include two large medical buildings, a professional building for attorneys, and a drug store. The plans call for more than 33,000 sq. ft. of floor space. Each building will be completely air-conditioned and will include every modern convenience. Ample parking will be provided with access to both Pacific and Olive streets.

The project is headed by Jack O. Gross Sr., developer of Gross Center on Rosecrans St., and Thomas B. Smith, San Diego real estate broker.

Leasing is currently under way and construction is scheduled to start the latter part of August. The entire project is scheduled for completion on January 16, 1961.

According to Wheeler, the Lemon Grove Professional Center will be one of the finest in the state of California. The cost will be in excess of $650,000, he said.

PRIMARY ELECTION ROUND UP

David W. Bird was re-elected County Supervisor and Judge Joseph Doerr was re-elected to the bench of the El Cajon Municipal Court; Judge Edgar Hervey defeated El Cajon Municipal Court Judge R. Fenton Garfield in a race for the Superior Court bench Tuesday.

In other races affecting local area districts, the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district's issue for $6½ millions for school construction apparently lost, as did their bid for an increase in school tax from $1.70 to $2.48.

Assembly races in the area pit Sheridan Hegland against Jack Manion and Jack Shrade against Jim Bear in the general election this fall.

On the state level Vice President R. Nixon and Gov. Pat Brown became presidential delegates; state veterans' state school bonds, and funding changes were approved.

U.S. Representative James Utt apparently will compete with Max E. Woods; Rep. Bob Wilson will go against Walter Wencke.

In the city of San Diego, approval was given to a bond issue for harbor improvements; transfer of city land for Salk research center, and a $44 million school bond issue.

LM-SV SCHOOL ISSUES LOSE

Unofficial reports from 111 precincts out of 121 in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District showed that voters in Tuesday's election did not favor borrowing $6½ million from the State for a building program. It required two to one to carry. The figures reported were: YES, 9,150 and NO, 7,031.

Also turned down was the tax override proposition; YES, 5,592 and NO,, 10,325. This proposition required only a simple majority.

As the official reports must come from the County Registrar of Voters, it may be a few days before the counting is official, a spokesman for the School district said.

Grove Woman to Become Her Own Mother in Law

Mrs. Ben (Jane) Alvarez, who owns a restaurant in Lemon Grove, is about to become her own mother in law. At least, she will be the mother of her sister in law.

Also, if her intended new sister in law has any children the children will become their own cousins, and will be able to call Mrs. Alvarez "Grandma" or "Aunt Jane," depending on the mood.

It all comes about because Mrs. Alvarez' daughter LaDonna Bingham, is about to marry her uncle, Jose Mario Alvarez, brother of Ben Alvarez, her step father.

And to top it all, if the intended bride should have any children, she not only will be their mother, but their aunt too.

Artists to Compete In Festive Atmosphere

DEL MAR—Gay as a street scene in a Parisian art colony, the art show at the 1960 Southern California Exposition in Del Mar June 24 through July 4 will assume a highly festive atmosphere with an outdoor showing on the lawn in the Plaza de Mexico.

It will be known as the Outdoor Festival of Painting, according to George Sorenson of the San Diego State College and will coincide with the newly arranged Crafts for Contemporary Living show which will be held in the art building.

"In order to allow as many artists as possible to participate, the paintings will be arranged in typical festival style," Sorenson, department superintendent, said. "Each artist will in turn be limited to one painting exhibited jury free. All works entered will be eligible for cash and ribbon prizes as determined by the jury of awards."

The art showing will be housed in two covered display areas eight feet high and 80 feet long. Space will be limited to a first come first served basis. Artists may bring easels and supplies and paint in an "art in action" atmosphere.

The painting festival is open to artists residing in San Diego county. Artists will be limited to one painting jury free regardless of category. Entries will be accepted up to and including June 9 only as long as exhibit space is available. Cash and ribbons will be awarded.

Artists must deliver their entry directly to the festival area on Thursday, June 23 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. An award reception will be held at 2 p.m. June 24. A distingushed jury of San Diego County art experts will be chosen to award the prizes, Sorenson said.

Entry forms with fees attached should be mailed or delivered to the Entry Department, Southern California Exposition, Del Mar.

Property Owners Join to Request Zone Changes

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Two requests for zone changes in Lemon Grove and a request for a variance to enlarge a piece of Lemon Grove property already zoned for business are to be the subjects of public hearings Friday morning before the County Planning Commission.

Twenty-nine property owners have joined to seek one of the zone changes. They are asking for commercial zoning for about 30 lots on both sides Citrus and Vista, between Broadway and North avenue. The land is now zoned for apartment houses, but it is surrounded by other land zoned for commercial uses.

The second zone change request is for a little less than two acres, on the north side of Pacific, between West and Citrus. The land is also zoned for apartment houses, and commercial zoning is also being asked. Fifteen property-owners are seeking the change.

The zone variance is being requested by John M. Tangway, who is asking that the commercial zoning on 200 feet of his property be extended another 60 feet. The land is located at the intersection of Troy and Bancroft.

A request for a variance to permit a zone change is rarely asked. The most common method is to apply for rezoning. But planning department officials say the variance method may be used when a single piece of property is given two kinds of zoning.

Growler Cafe Scheduled for Extinction

SPRING VALLEY (CNS)—The Growler Cafe, long a Spring Valley landmark, is going out of business, according to an application filed with the County Planning Commission.

Bruno Borst, operator of the Growler, which is located on Campo road west of Conrad drive, is asking for a zone change to permit erection of a building for lease on the site.

His application states that he intends to close up his cafe so he can put up the building.

The land where the cafe now is is zoned for residences, and the Growler's non-conforming use results from its long-time location at the site. Borst is asking the commission to rezone his land for commercial use.

A public hearing on Borst's request is being held Friday morning before the planning commission.

Dan Near, 56 Handyman, Dies on Street

Dan Near, 56, one of Lemon Grove's favorite handymen, collapsed on Main street late last week. He died on the sidewalk.

Near had lived in the community for many years, doing odd jobs for merchants and residents in the downtown Lemon Grove area. Since the death of his wife a couple of years ago, he had lived alone, having no known relatives.

The county coroner's office and the office of the county public administrator are attempting to locate survivors and said that funeral arrangements are pending.

Elections Stall Board Meeting

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Due to Tuesday being election day, the County Board of Supervisors this week met on Wednesday.

Thus news of the Board's actions was not available to most of the county's newspapers. The Board had public hearings scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. Tuesday and continued its deliberations after the hearings closed.

The Board sessions finally ended after most of the county's newspapers had gone to press late Wednesday.

MORE WATER NEEDED

California will see a more-than-25-per-cent increase in water use in the next 15 years, says the Water Facts Library. By 1975, 3.6 million acre-feet of water must be newly conserved and distributed each year for farming purposes, and 2.9 million acre-feet for municipal and industrial use, says the Library.

County Cancer Crusade Ranks Third in State

San Diego County has outdone 34 other California counties in the 1960 Cancer Crusade by raising 70.2 per cent of its quota three months before the end of the fiscal year, according to Crusade Chairman Vice Adm. George R. Hendersn, USN ret.

In the dollar amount of gifts and donations at this point, San Diego County stands third among all counties in the state, bowing only to Los Angeles and Alameda counties, Henderson said.

By mid-May, San Diego County donations to the Cancer Crusade had reached $123,959 from all sources, according to Henderson. Direct mails appeals have just now begun in some areas of the county. An unusual number of memorial gifts, Henderson said, are now coming in.

"Giving has increased all along the line this year," Adm. Henderson said. "If organized employe groups match the generosity of other segments of the community, we can hardly fail to exceed our goal before August 31, the end of the fiscal year," he said.

The goal set by the San Diego County Crusade Committe for 1960 is $176,000.

Woman's Club Presents Scholarship to Student

A senior at Mt. Miguel High School, who will graduate in June, has received a $150 scholarship from the Spring Valley Woman's Club.

The student is Carolyn Brady, daughter of Mrs. Verna Brady, 8836 Country Club Pl., Spring Valley. A spokesman for the Woman's Club said the girl received the award because she was a "worth-while girl and needed the money."

In giving the award, the Woman's Club did not specify how the money is to be used. Carolyn said it will go toward her tuition at the University of California at Berkley. She intends to enter the University in the fall.

She said that she has been interested in law since she was just a youngster, and that she hopes to be able to practice international law some day.

Miss Brady has been active in the Girl Scout program for 10 years, being with the same troop for that length of time. The troop, which has been under the leadership of Mrs. Maye Dutelle all the time, is now a senior troop, 453. Carolyn said she intends to stay active in the Scout movement as long as she can. This summer she will be a camp counsellor at a Brownie camp in the Cuyamaca mountains.

The award was presented by the club's scholarship chairman, Mrs. Frieda Ralston. This is the third year in which the club has been made such an award.

New Fast-Series Action Camera Now Available

A new 35mm camera, seen for the first time at leading national photographic trade shows this spring, now is available at Lemon Grove Camera Store.

According to store owner Bob Vaught, the new camera has a rapid-sequence feature which allows even the beginning photographer to take series pictures fast without removing the camera from eye level.

This is done by use of a trigger which advances the film cocks the shutter and sets the picture counter dial. The trigger folds out of the way when not in use.

The ribbon cut simultaneously by 11 representatives of the incorporated cities of San Diego County. Following the ribbon cutting ceremony A. J. Sutherland Senior Vice President, San Diego Division officially turned over the keys to Glenn C. Erickson, Vice President and Manager of the San Diego Main Office.

A Security First National branch will open next month in Lemon Grove at College Grove Center.

Unauthorized Burning Plagues Fire Department

Dry grass burning and persons without burning permits continue to plague the Spring Valley Fire Dept., says chief Frank Berger. Out of five fires the past week, four were grass fires in which the property owners had no burning permit. Chief Berger urges all persons of the area, whether property owner or renter, to get a burning permit at either Spring Valley fire station and to observe the legal burning hours, before 9 a.m. and after 6 p.m.

May 26, at 9:13 p.m. at 2040 Helix St., embers from an unattended rubbish fire caused an area of dry grass to burn off.

May 27, at 9030 Campo Rd., in front of the S.V. Post Office, a car owned by Donald Wild of 8719 Ildica St., caught fire due to carburetor trouble. No damage was reported.

Also on May 27, at 4138 Citradora, grass and rubbish fire damaged two fruit trees.

May 28, at 9105 Rosedale, rubbish and grass fire burned a small area. Children playing with matches possibly started the fire.

May 30, at 9425 Lamar St., a grass and rubbish fire burned off about half an acre.

There were two ambulance runs during the week: May 24, Mrs. Stan Totten of 10724 Challenge Blvd. became ill and was taken to Lake Murray Hospital; May 29, Mrs. Edith Robinson of 926 Parkbrook, was taken to Mercy Hospital, with a possible heart attack.

CALIFORNIANS USE WATER

Each resident of California uses about 200 gallons of water per day for his domestic and industrial needs, says the Water Facts Library. It takes about 1,300 gallons a day per person to grow the food and fiber needed to sustain California's economy. With an expanding population, this need can be expected to increase rapidly, warns the Library.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE SECOND INSTALLMENT OF THE HELIX IRRIGATION DISTRICT, AMOUNTING TO ONE-HALF OF THE 1959-60 ASSESSMENT, IS DUE AND WILL BECOME DELINQUENT ON THE 20TH DAY OF JUNE, 1960, AND UNLESS SAID INSTALLMENT IS PAID PRIOR TO THAT TIME A PENALTY OF FIVE PER CENT (5%) OF SAID SECOND INSTALLMENT WILL BE ADDED TO THE AMOUNT THEREOF SO BECOMING DELINQUENT.

Service Station Wins Variance Permission

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A zone variance to permit modernization of a service station at the intersection of Massachusetts avenue and Broadway, Lemon Grove, was granted Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The action was taken against the recommendation of the commission committee which studied the area. However, the commission did follow the committee recommendation in denying the applicant's request for permission to put signs closer to the center line of both thoroughfares than the zoning ordinance requires.

Jack Martin, area manager for Socony Mobil Oil Co., Inc., operators of the service station, told the commission that the pumps proposed for the refurbished station will not interfere with visibility. He presented a cardboard replica of the pumps to show their height and width.

The service station has been at the site for 20 years, Martin said, and he pointed out that a structure to be removed in the modernization is closer to the street than the pumps would be.

Joe Oddo, operator of a restaurant in the area, protested the variance requested for the signs. He said he had been denied a variance for a sign for his restaurant. But he declared that he was not opposed to the variance for the pumps.

The commission then approved putting the pumps 60 feet from the center line of Massachusetts, instead of the required 75 feet, and 62 feet from the center line of Broadway.

In other action affecting the Lemon Grove area, the commission granted Charles Hastings permission to build 18 feet from his rear property line, instead of the required 25 feet, at 1608 Watwood Dr., but it turned down a request from Edward Loyle Higgins for a front yard variance.

Higgins asked to be allowed to build 40 feet from the center line of the street at 7383 San Miguel Ave., where the ordinance requires 50 feet. The commission said it had no legal justification for granting his plea.

Russian Class Attracts Eager Miguel Students

It isn't at all unusual on the Mount Miguel high school campus to pass students hurrying to class . . . not just ANY class, but their Russian class. Forty-five students are in the Russian program at Mount Miguel this year.

Seth Carpenter, Mount Miguel social studies and Russian teacher, commented on the value of the course:

"It prepares students to continue their study at the college level, since by studying the language and its intricacies, they obtain a better idea of the Russian people and their culture." He continued, "Most students would be better off if they began their language study in elementary school; however, if this can't be done, they should try to begin at the freshman level in high school. It is at this age that they are less self-conscious about recitation or the making of mistakes than is true in the upper class years."

The course makes use of a text entitled Essentials of Russian. During the week three assignments come from this book and two are conducted in spoken Russian from materials that have been prepared by the instructor. Thus, both theory and practice are used.

Carpenter added, "The language lab at Miguel has contributed immeasurably; students are isolated from one another. It is an advantage in that the instructor has direct access to each student through the head phones. This adds importance to what we're trying to do, since the youngster can do what he needs to do without outside distractions. Further, if necessary, one can have materials to present on different levels at the same time. This will prove to be tremendously valuable in Russian II and in travel.

"Students would gain much value from publications in Russian if they tried to obtain them. Since October 4, 1957, we have had available here many more Russian publications. For example, the STUDENT, a monthly periodical, presents its material on three levels: records, periodicals and tapes which will soon become available. If one article a month were read, students of Russian would find themselves making tremendous strides."

For those students who are interested in pursuing their courses of study during the summer months, there will be courses offered at Grossmont.

Spring Concert To Be Held This Week

The Spring Concert of the Mt. Miguel high school Instrumental Music Department will be held this week on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the school's gymnasium. Admission is free.

The orchestra, under the direction of L. K. Christianson, will perform works of all ages.

The first half of the concert will feature the orchestra in three movements from "The Water Music Suite" By Handel; Symphony No. 29 in A Major by Mozart; "Two Seventeenth Century Dutch Tunes" by Valerius, and the "Intermezzo" from "Harry Janos" by Kodaly.

After intermission, the concert band will perform: "Mass" from "La Fiesta Mexicana" by H. Owen Reed; "Jubilation Overture" by Ward; Chorale and Fuge in G Minor by Bach-Abert; and Prelude and Wedding March from "The Golden Cockerel" by Rimsky-Korsikov.

Featured soloist on the concert will be one of the outstanding seniors in the Music Department, Warren Carnie, who will perform two movements of the famous "Concerto for Trumpet" by joseph Hydn. President of the Mount Miguel Band this year, Warren is also a member of the Civic Youth Orchestra.

Assemblyman Jack Schrade helps Mrs. Lillian Camp cut cake for her 80th birthday.

Community Turns Out to Honor Lillian Camp on 80th Birthday

The whole community of Dulzura turned out the other day at a birthday party for Mrs. Lillian Camp, former Spring Valley resident. It was her 80th birthday.

The party was a surprise, given to her by the Dulzura community, in appreciation for her 50 years of service to the area, and for her work in many county, state and national organizations.

Jack Schrade, Assemblyman from the 80th District, and long time friend of Mrs. Camp, shared the honor with her in cutting the birthday cake. Jack's birthday is also May 25.

Sharing the party were Mrs. Camp's four children: Mrs. Martha Goodwin and family of San Diego; Mrs. Charlotte Holcomb and husband "Red" of Dulzura; Walter Camp and family of El Cajon; and Edward Camp and family of Dulzura.

Edward Leonard, past-president of Highway 94 Club, was master of ceremonies. Rev. Jack J. Peterson of Chula Vista opened the party with a prayer. Over 100 guests were present, according to Dulzura postmaster Laura Bohm.

Mrs. Laverne Powell read the history of Dulzura, in which Mrs. Camp played a leading part. Mrs. Hazel Sheckler and Mrs. Dorothy Schmid, both old timers of Dulzura, rose to the occasion to give brief sketches of old timers. Also Mrs. Agnes Dudley of Jamul, who taught school in Dulzura in 1924, spoke of school in those days. Mrs. Maggie Page and Ralph Rasmussen read poems, which honored the guest of honor.

Lillian Camp migrated from Sturgeon Bay, Wis., to San Diego in 1907, and kept house for her brother Sydney Nelson, who earlier came to Calif. for his health. For a few years Lillian and Sydney lived in Spring Valley and Jamul. Finally Sydney's health was regained and he is now a real estate dealer in Rancho Santa Fe.

In January of 1960, Mrs. Camp, then Lillian Nelson, married Charles Camp. The young couple moved to Dulzura, taking over the Dulzura Inn, from Capt. Small, who homesteaded the property in the 1880s.

Prior to their marriage, Charles Camp had been freighting for the Southern Calif. Mountain Water Co., who were then constructing the flume above Dulzura, which later connected Lake Morena with Lake Otay. The freighters in those days was drawn by mule or horse teams. The teams consisted of four, eight or ten animals. The large wagons were loaded with cement, lumber, food and general supplies, needed for the flume and working crew.

Charles Camp was called the "Candy Man" by the children of the area. He was given this name, according to Charlie Bratton, old timer of Bratton Valley, because of an act by (then) a small girl named Mary Dana. It seems that one day Mary noted that part of Charlie Camp's freight load was about to slip from the wagon. She stopped him and told him of the impending loss and he was so grateful to her that from then on he gave candy to the children along his route.

Many old timers of the area will remember Jack Dalton, who drove the ten-mule freight wagon for the Campo store. Everyone along the road knew when Jack was coming by the tinkling of the bells on the mules' collars. It took Jack three days to make a trip from San Diego and three days to return. He would make camp the first night, on the way down from Campo, at the old Smith Ranch at Barrett. The Smith Ranch is now owned by the Clyde Maitlands. The second night Jack would camp at the site of Oslar's Dining Room, just west of Jamul.

George Daley, at that time also was in the freighing business along Highway 94, as were others. Highway 94 at that time was the only highway to Imperial Valley. The road was narrow and rough, and often on the steep hills the mules or horses had to be given time to "blow." Mrs. Camp recalls that it was in 1919 when the Dulzura grade was built by Harry Small, an engineer, at a cost of $1,500. The old grade ran mostly across the creek bed, traces of which can still be seen.

The Camp's Inn was a busy place in those early days providing meals and lodging for teamsters and travelers, and providing water and resting place for the many teams. Now and then a Stanley Steamer would roll up to the Inn, causing no end of excitement, but probably not as much interest as did the twenty-mule teams that passed through occasionally.

The Dulzura post office at that time was located on the Frank Clark Ranch, where a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Schmid, still lives. She has just completed her Clark Park dam.

The stage which ran from San Diego to Campo three times a week, stopped at the post office to throw off and pick up mail. The local store was run by Harry Hagenbuck in the same building now occupied by the Robert Thayers. The one-room schoolhouse stood on what is now the Hazel Scheckler property, across from Bill Gregory's frezer lockers. I. W. Allen and family lived up the canyon across from Sheckelers, and both families are still there.

The above is a hasty sketch of Dulzura when the Camps first settled there 50 years ago. Many changes have taken place. Over 300 people are served by the Dulzura post office today. However Dulzura is still a small community and that is just the way the people there want it.

They say that there is a sigh of relief as the traffic of the "big city" is left behind and they round the curve near home and see old "Mother Grundy" asleep on her hilltop. And more often than not these residents of the Dulzura area will stop by Mrs. Lillian Camp's to get a book from her County Library or to have a cup of coffee and a bit of chit-chat before chores and dinner.

Cub Pack 357 aided other scouts as a cleanup squad at the Aztec Bowl of San Diego State College, which was the scene of the Scout Jamboree on June 4.

The boys did a cleanup job there in a few hours that most of their mothers have been trying to get done at home for years.

Little League News

They are: the Comets, Rockets, Orbits, Sattelites, Meteors, Gallaxies, Spacers, Solars, Missiles, Sputniks, Astros and Cosmics. Within the next two weeks, we hope to bring you good news about a permanent playing field for the league. In the meantime, if you can contribute time, money or equipment, get in touch with Mrs. G. D. Meet the Neighbors

From time to time we'll be introducing you to some of your neighbors. Those whose names seem to crop up at most of the community activities; those who seem to be doing more than their share.

Meet Barbara and Jim Jordan. They have lived in San Diego for 3 years, in Mt. Miguel Terrace for almost one year. They have five children, three boys and two girls, ranging in age from 1-12 years, and another is expected in August.

Barbara was born in Michigan. She was first vice president and program chairman of the Avondale PTA for the past year, is incoming president for the coming year, is active in the Spring Valley Little League, Boy Scouts and Retarded Children charities.

Jim was born in Kansas, has just received his first class rating in the Navy, is attached to the legal office of the Recruit Training Command. He is president of the Spring Valley Little League, committeeman for the Boy Scouts, and in his spare time does little jobs around the house like making the garage into a panelled family room by himself. One of the many things he has in common with his wife is the inability to say no to anything that will help his family and community.

Scout Campout

Boy Scout Troop 357 will have a campout the weekend of June 10 at Balboa Park.

Miguel Teacher To Receive Master's Degree

Robert Brady, Mt. Miguel High School civics and social studies teacher, will receive the master's degree at graduation ceremonies at San Diego State College in June.

Brady, who took his undergraduate work at Wisconsin State College in Eau Claire, has taken his advanced study in the field of secondary school administration. He plans further study.

Brady serves Mt. Miguel as associated student body advisor and has been with the district since 1957. He was assigned to a San Diego based destroyer when in the Navy and went around by Hong Kong on it before reaching the base. His first glimpse of San Diego was on a beautiful, sunny Sunday morning, and he says, "I'll never forget it." He decided then and there to live in the San Diego area, when he left the service.

Brady's life has also been a teacher. The Bradys live now on Lake Alturas Avenue with their two baby daughters.

ACADEMY JOINS FLIGHT SCHOOL

Safari Flight Academy, Gillespie Field, Santee, has joined the National Association of Flight Schools, according to Gerald Hamann, vice president of the Academy.
